

Join us for an upcoming training workshop!

Identifying, Assessing, and Responding to Trafficking Concerns Involving Refugee and Newcomer Youth

TOPICS ADDRESSED

Identifying common forms of sex and labor trafficking of refugee and newcomer children and youth in the U.S.

Recognizing warning signs of trafficking unique to refugee and newcomer youth.

Trauma-informed approaches for assessment, safety planning, and developing a multidisciplinary support network.

The OTIP Request for Assistance (RFA) process and the benefits and services available for survivors of trafficking.

Wednesday
March 25th, 2026
2:00-3:30pm ET

Register here:

https://refugees-org.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_j3lHme6tQNe_n7shGKvcrq#/registration

PRESENTED BY

USCRI's Refugee Youth Resource Center (RYRC) and Anti-Trafficking Services

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Service providers working with refugee children and youth (resettlement agencies, child welfare, schools, health/mental health providers, anti-trafficking organizations, and others)