

Join us for an upcoming training workshop!

Supporting Refugee & Newcomer Youth Through Uncertainty: Navigating Loss, Separation, & Fear

TOPICS ADDRESSED

The current immigration landscape and immigration-related stressors

The impacts of navigating loss, separation, and fear on newcomer youth, families, communities, and support staff

Practical strategies and tools to support newcomer youth and families experiencing immigration-related stress

Case scenarios to apply the information learned

Wednesday,
May 27, 2026
2:00-3:30pm ET

Register here:

https://refugees-org.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_b-OZIBCfQiG9Z3q3ckr-dyg#/registration

What does it look like to support newcomer youth and families when their communities are being impacted by immigration enforcement and uncertainty? How can service providers respond in ways that are grounded, culturally responsive, and sustaining for newcomer youth and families, and for themselves?

Join us for an upcoming training to explore practical strategies for supporting newcomer youth and families in today's immigration landscape.

USCRI received competitive funding through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Grant #90RB0054. The project is 100% financed by federal funds. The contents of this document are solely the responsibility of USCRI and do not necessarily represent the official views of HHS/ACF.